LOCAL NEWS.

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 10

THE RE-UNION LAST NIGHT.—Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather, and occurrence, at the same time, of several other meetings, in which many of the members were interested, "The Society of Old Students of St. John's Academy," was well attended, last night. Mr. John T. Hill, one of the Vice Presidents presided, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:

J. Fairfax McLaughlin, of Maryland, President; Norval E. Foard, of Maryland; French C. Lugenbeel, of the District of Columbia; John T. Hill, of Virginia; Henry J. Nevett, of Ohio; Singleton Ridgely, of Tennessee; Martin Wm. Wigg, of South Carolina; and John R. Edelen, of Georgia, Vice Presidents; James A. Clarridge, Recording Secretary; Norman F. Moore, Corresponding Secretary; Thomas Scott, Treasurer. The Chair appointed Messrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler, Rudolph Johnson, Donald McLean, Ernest J. Simpson and G. Wm. Hunter, to constitute the Executive Committee.

The Constitution was so amended as to change the annual meeting from the school anniversary September 8th, to the day of the annual closing exercises, the last Friday in June, and a long and amusing debate, on the manner of notifying members, the amount of funds necessary for carrying out the objects of the Society, the propriety of having an annual dinner, &c., ensued, in which Mr. R. Johnson, of Washington, and Messrs. S. C. Neale, G. M. Germann, R. L. Carne, A. M. Hall, N. F. Moore, J. F. Muir and John Harper, of this city, participated.

The meeting adjourned about ten o'clock, those who attended being much gratified at the proceedings.

THE REGATTA.—At the request of several boat owners in other cities, who desired to enter their boats for the regatta to have occurred on Thursday next, and have been unable to make the necessary preparations, the regatta has been postponed until the 25th instant. By that time a much larger number of boats will have an opportunity to enter, and it is expected that Philadelphia, Baltimore, and possibly New York may be represented. The rowing match has not been decided upon, positively, as yet.

Seven boats are already entered, viz: the Greyhound, Minnie Clark, Perseverance, Augusta, Billy, National, and Katie of Baltimore, which has been refitted, furnished with new sails, and otherwise improved, and great expectations are entertained of her success in the coming race.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last night, about nine o'clock, John Thompson, keeper of the draw at the Long Bridge, was knocked off the bridge by a passing train and killed. The National Intelligencer of this morning gives the following account of the accident:

"The alarm was at once given, and the police of the Island precinct, with lights, boats, and necessary implements, were on hand, searching the river, and about 11 o'clock the dead body of Mr. Thompson was found in the river. It was conveyed to one of the sheds on the river front, and the Coroner at once notified to hold an inquest, which will be held at eight o'clock this morning. Mr. Thompson was a man well-known to many of our citizens, who will be shocked to hear of his untimely end.—During the search for the body officer Evans, of the police force, was knocked into the river, and came near being drowned before assistance could be rendered.

CLEAN THE GUTTERS.—Complaint is made that the gutters in some quarters of the city are full of foul and stagnant slops, and give forth most offensive odors. They should be cleaned thoroughly, and kept so, for the sake of health, as well as decency. The law imposes a penalty on any one convicted of throwing slops in the street, yet there are those who furtively evade the law in the darkness of night. These drenching rains, with a little assistance on the part of our citizens who suffer accumulations to exist in the gutters, would have effectually cleaned them (the gutters, not the citizens,) of impurities.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The choir of the M. E. Church, South, advertise their excursion by moonlight to come off on Thursday evening, the 12th inst. This excursion has been twice postponed on account of bad weather. On this occasion, it is hoped, the elements will be propitious. The celebrated choir of the "M" Street, Washington city, Church, (Rev. Wm. V. Tudor's)—of which Jos. H. Daniels is conductor, and his daughter, so well-known as splendid singers, are members—has been invited to accompany the excursionists, but as yet it is not certainly known that the invitation will be accepted.

BASE BALL.—The game of base ball played here on Saturday evening last between the first nines of the Jefferson, of Washington, and the Pioneer, of this city, resulted in favor of the Jefferson in a game of six innings. Score—Jefferson, 52; Pioneer, 22. Umpire—Ad. Warfield, of the Old Dominion. The Jefferson were handsomely entertained by the Pioneer, at the City Hotel.

A match game was played on Thursday last between the first nines of the Osceola and Pastime, (junior clubs), of this city, which resulted in favor of the former by a score of 59 to 23.

RELIEF HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—A meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night in the hall of the Hydraulion Fire Company's Engine House, for the purpose of making arrangements for a proposed pleasure excursion, but without transacting any business the meeting adjourned until to-night, when it will re-assemble at No. 69 King street.

CONTESTED WILL.—In the Orphans Court of Washington on Saturday last, the consideration of the contested will of the late Samuel Devaughn was resumed, and Judge Moore made a long argument against the probate of the will.

THE HEAVY RAIN yesterday thoroughly saturated the earth, and caused some of the neighboring streams to be much swollen for a time.

COUNCIL.—The regular meeting of the City Council will be held to-night.

WHITE SERVANTS AND BLACK.—The living obtained by the colored people who dwell here is so precarious and uncertain as to give rise to wonder how they live at all. Few seem to have stated or regular employment. The majority wander about the streets picking up chance jobs, sawing wood, putting away coal, &c., occupations which evidently do not keep them employed a tythe of their time. As a rule these wanderers will not contract to do a regular day's work, prefering the small and quickly performed tasks. Women and children are seen at all times perambulating the streets, picking up sticks for fuel, and gathering into bundles such odds and ends of scraps as they can sell at the junk shops. How they will live when the pinching cold of winter comes, clad in rags as they are, how existence is to be prolonged until the next summer's sun gladdens them with its genial rays, they probably ponder not, nor care. The number of street mendicants and house beggars is large and increasing, the many being of the colored race. Idle, shiftless, wretched, and nearly naked—what can be done with these? Few hire them as servants, in most cases they having proven themselves worthless, indolent and thievish—utterly disqualified for any position of trust in respectable households. This is no fancy picture, as hundreds of our citizens can testify to their sorrow. What shall be done? White servants are not to be had of native birth, and the war seems to have caused the mysterious disappearance of the Irish and German house-servants formerly so plentiful and useful. If the tide of emigration could be turned this way, and we be furnished with good, reliable servants as in former times, a great and pressing want would be thus supplied. We want good servants, reliable help, that can be depended on, not such as will leave without cause at the very time they can be least spared. White servants would be best suited to the condition of things at present, when the relations between whites and blacks are so unsettled, and they are now sought after by many housekeepers.

RADICAL MEETING.—A meeting of the Stevens Republican club of the Fourth Ward was held last night, in Bethlehem Church, colored, James Claggett, colored, the President of the club, in the chair. After prayer by a colored preacher, named Murray, Judge Underwood favored the meeting with an address of some length, at the conclusion of which the following resolutions were offered separately and adopted:

Resolved, That to better the organization of the Republican party in the county and city of Alexandria, the Fourth Ward elect seven members of the Stevens Republican club, to be called the Executive Committee.

Resolved, That the Republicans of the Fourth Ward cordially request their friends in the First, Second and Third Wards, and in the county, to elect the same number to represent their clubs, in a meeting, called by the several committees, to transact business for the different clubs, as a consolidated body, in order that all, as Republicans, may work harmoniously.

Resolved, That this committee shall have power to elect their own President, Secretary, and other officers of their own choice, out of the different committees.

Resolved, That this committee shall have power to call a mass meeting of the wards and county together, whenever they deem it necessary to act in carrying out the Reconstruction law.

G. W. Bryant, J. A. Seaton, G. L. Seaton, A. S. Perpener, and R. Williams, colored, and Lysander Hill and Josiah Millard, white, were elected as the members of the Executive Committee of the Fourth Ward club, after which the meeting adjourned.

OUTLET LOCKS.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company is making an effort to repair the outlet-lock at the mouth of Rock Creek, so as to permit the passage of loaded boats from the canal into the Potomac. The lock is made water tight, and has a board flooring. Some of these boards have become loose, and the lock will not therefore hold a sufficient volume of water to permit boats to ride through. During the war the government expended several thousand dollars upon this repair, but eventually abandoned the work. The repair of the lock will be a great advantage.

FALL BUSINESS.—We again mention that our merchants, manufacturers, and mechanics, are laying in and opening their Fall supplies of goods of all kinds, and will have full assortments of all articles for a country trade, to be sold as cheaply as they can be bought in any other market, and often at more advantageous terms than are offered elsewhere. The facilities of reaching this market by river travel, and by railroad, are such as to offer great inducements to visit the market and make purchases.

LECTURE TO THE CHILDREN.—Mr. Wm. K. Hunter, of North Carolina, "The Children's Friend," has returned to this city, and will address the children of the Sabbath Schools tomorrow (Wednesday) night, at 7½ o'clock, in the Baptist Church, Washington street. All, old and young, are invited to attend. Parents are particularly invited to be present. The children will occupy the front seats.

MARYLAND FERRY BOAT.—The hull of the new steam ferry boat, now on the ways, below Mr. Goodhand's Ship Yard, is nearly completed, and will be launched in a few days. It will "draw" only about 18 inches of water. It is substantially built, and will have an excellent engine capable of propelling the boat at a good speed, from shore to shore.

THE FISH MARKET has been tolerably well supplied with fish from the lower Potomac, the last two days. They were generally in good condition, having been packed in ice. But fish is a perishable article of food, and should not be kept on hand too long, even with the advantage of ice.

THE AUTUMNAL diseases, billious fever, ague and fever, &c., are more common in this section than they were a few weeks ago; but the cases, in general, are easily managed, and yield readily to the proper remedies. This city and neighborhood have been very healthy.

PASTORAL CALL.—It is understood that the Rev. Edward H. Ingle, late of the Episcopal High School, near this city, has accepted a call to the Episcopal Churches at Salem and Big Lick, in Roanoke county.

STEAMSHIP WORCESTER, Capt. Graham, arrived at Baltimore on Saturday, having left Liverpool on the 24th ult. Capt. G. is always welcomed home after his prosperous voyages, by his old friends.

WATER PIPES.—The Water Company have laid pipes for the conveyance of the Cameron water down Fairfax to Gibbon street.

POLICE REPORT.—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Alice Brent, colored, on complaint of Catherine Taylor, also colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

Catherine Taylor, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

During the trial of the above cases Mrs. Mary Hughes, who was in the office, commenced abusing the parties undergoing examination, and for not obeying the commands of the Court to keep quiet, was committed to the Watch House for contempt.

Mary Hughes, on complaint of William Buckingham, for applying to him approbrious epethets, was discharged, as the complainant withdrew the charge and paid the costs.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Gallagher for abusive language towards Mrs. Travis.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of a colored boy named Wesley Stafford, for striking a little son of F. W. Veitch.

The Edward Davis, mentioned in yesterday's Police Report, as having committed an assault on a colored woman, was not the police officer of that name.

MAGISTRATES' OFFICE.—Sam. Norris, from Washington, for disorderly conduct, was discharged.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Sam. Henson, colored, for forcible retention of the clothes of a colored woman named Elizabeth Cline.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The box office of the National Theatre was opened for the sale of seats yesterday. Notwithstanding the very wet weather there was quite a large sale, especially for a few favorite operas, chief among which were the Bohemian Girl," "Cinderella," and "Norma." In the last named the new prima donna, Miss Marie Abbott, will make her first appearance.

The eastern section of the city is improving very rapidly, and new buildings are being erected at all points.

Mr. John F. Ellis, music dealer, has just had erected and completed, at an expense of $25,000, a handsome iron front building on Pennsylvania avenue, near Tenth street. The ground upon which the building is erected cost originally $45,000.

An application for the release of Johnson (charged with killing Smoot) on bail, is to be made.

The central portion of the old penitentiary building, in the Arsenal grounds, is to be demolished. The wings will be converted into quarters for the officers of the post.
