ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 7.

THE NEW CITY GOVERNMENT was duly inaugurated last night, both branches of the City Council having organized, and the Mayor elect being sworn in. GEORGE BRYAN, esq., was re-elected President of the Board of Aldermen, and JOHN B. SMOOT, esq., President of the Common Council. J. J. Jamieson, esq., was chosen Clerk of the Board of Aldermen, and Thos. M. White, esq., Clerk of the Common Council. The oath of office was administered to the Mayor, in the presence of the members of both boards, assembled in the Council Chamber, by Justice Summers. After the administration of the oath, Mr. Latham returned his thanks to his fellow-citizens for the renewed expression of their confidence in re-electing him. He then gave his views in regard to the election, expressing emphatically his opinion that the "Force Bill" was inapplicable to our municipal affairs, especially at this time, and before its promulgation. Mr. L. referred to the manner in which he had discharged the duties of his office, and gave his pledge that he should continue to execute the laws justly and impartially, and without fear. He alluded to the presence of the military in the city on election day, and declared that it was unnecessary. In conclusion, he urged upon the Council the necessity of acting with firmness, and solicited their aid in all endeavors for the welfare of the city.

THE COLORED POPULATION OF ALEXANDRIA.—As the Radical memorialists to Congress, from this place, claim to have polled at the late municipal election upwards of 1500 votes, and as the white portion of said vote did not exceed 75 or 80, all told, it becomes a matter of interest to ascertain the facts in regard to the number of colored men in this place, who would be entitled to vote, provided they had the right; and for this purpose we have obtained from good authority, the following, in reference to the number of the colored population:

"The number of colored males, heads of families, in this city, upon actual count, is 1112; children of both sexes, over 14 years of age, 659, of which number about half, or 329, are males, and probably one-third, or 109, are adults. This would give a voting population of about 1221. There are no means of determining accurately the voters among those entered in the census as over 14 years."

Where the other 300 came from can be guessed as well by our readers as ourselves.

GOOD ORDER.—We have referred before, to the good order that prevailed here on the day of the late election, and the night of that day. The city was as quiet as if nothing particular was going on, and a stranger would not have known that there was any matter of interest afloat, except he had passed some of the voting places, or had stopped to inquire what the military were called for. Indeed, there was no necessity for the military here, at all, as far as preserving the public peace was concerned, and those who applied for troops might have saved themselves the trouble. We believe everything would have passed off just as peaceably as it did, if there had been no troops within a hundred miles. The Mayor and the Police were quite sufficient for every purpose. It is proper to add, however, as far as we can learn, that the troops who were brought down here, officers and soldiers, conducted themselves in an unobjectionable manner.

THE COLORED VOTE.—All the votes of the colored people recorded at the different places where they went to vote—on Tuesday last—at the Municipal Election in this place,—were, with one exception, given to Mr. Geo. Tucker, for Mayor, and for the Radical ticket for Council and City officers. The record of the number of colored persons who thus voted, counts up, as is reported 1,365. Many of these, even if the election as conducted by them had been legal, and colored people had been, under the charter, and the State laws, and the military bill, allowed to vote, would have been bad votes, in every sense, those proffering them, in many instances, not having the shadow of a claim to such a privilege. Notwithstanding all this, these people are persuaded by their friends—some of whom they have found to their cost already are very dear friends—to make difficulties and to claim the election before the Courts and before Congress.

BOLD ROBBERY.—Mr. F. G. Swaine was robbed last night, of one hundred dollars in gold, and a smaller amount in currency. The thief entered the kitchen window of his dwelling on Royal street, went through the house to the chamber in which Mr. S. and his wife slept, crawled to the bed side and took Mr. S's pocket book containing the money from the pocket of his pantaloons, and escaped without detection!

GRADUATED.—Among the names of the gentlemen who received the degree of M. D. at the annual commencement of the Richmond Medical College on Tuesday last, we notice that of Rezin S. Fair, of Fairfax county. Francis G. Ashford, also of Fairfax county, received the degree of Doctor of Medicine at the annual commencement of the Medical Department of Columbian College, in Washington, last night.

GARDENING, says the Petersburg Express, has been a slow business this season. It is not often that the ground has been dry enough for planting, and whenever such has been the case, a wet change in the weather takes place; and this has happened so often as to suspend operations almost entirely.

O. & A. R. R. TIME TABLE.—By reference to the advertisement of the time schedule of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, in the Gazette, it will be seen that a change has occurred in the time of the arrival of the passenger trains on that road.

THE WEATHER continued rainy and disagreeable up to this morning. The streets are bad for pedestrians, and the roads worse and worse.

THE LIGHT BOATS, stationed off Upper and and Lowea Cedar Points, on the Potomac, left here this morning for their stations.

CORRECTION.—In the addition of the vote for Mayor, given in yesterday's Gazette, the reader will perceive that there are errors in each column. The vote for Mr. Latham should have been 580 instead of 590, and that for Mr. Marbury 521, and not 511, as printed. These corrections, it will be seen, do not change the majority, however.

☞ In announcing the vote at the municipal election, in yesterday's Gazette, we should have stated that many of the gentlemen voted for were not candidates, and in this connexion we are requested by Mr. Avery to state that he publicly announced that he was not a candidate, prior to and during the election, and Mr. A. further desires us to return his thanks to his friends for the complimentary vote he received.

☞ We are requested to state that the proposed visit of congratulation to Mr. Latham, by his numerous friends, which was to have taken place to-night, has been postponed until next monday night.
